FLYING TRIP TO WEBSDALE

Over the rolling prairie to Webdale, thirty seven miles and return, the proprietors of The News sent last Saturday in boomer the circulation of this paper. The trip was made in Scolard & Hegy's reliable roadster, the I. H. C. auto, with E. C. Hegy at the wheel.

We started early, and with the steady chug-chug of the engine we soon had left the town behind and were out on the open prairie, where, only a few decades since, the herds of buffalo roamed and the coyotes howled the nights more dismal. However a far different scene lay before us: the fertile prairie, ready to giddit's harvest of golden grain; with here and there the homesteads' dwellings.

We were armed with sample copies of the News, subscription receipt blanks, etc., and stopped at nearly every farmhouse along the way. A large number of subscriptions were taken outright, the announcement of Carlstadt's business men were left in scores of homes, and a start made toward claiming the trade of the whole district for Carlstadt merchants. Which is about what it should be! The fair dealing and honest values given by the merchants of this place are attracting that trade to the "buy burg" more and more. Of all the places at which we stopped we did not hear a single remark belittling the town.

The people in the Webdale district are good—very good—everybody's smiling. Webdale is nearly all in the stock, and considerable of it is already stacked preparatory to threshing, which commences this week. Note—some excellent fields of that will fill the farmer's heart with joy and his wallet with greenbacks. The well-kept premises, large houses beautified with paint, and good barns etc., also show a prosperous community. And then another thing: many farmers are not depending altogether upon their grain for revenue, but have gone in for mixed farming, and are raising stock: horses, cattle, hogs, and poultry.

Several camera pictures were taken, and we hope to reproduce at least one of them in next week's issue.

Mr. Mackay remained in the district several days, distributing sample copies, soliciting subscriptions, "getting acquainted" and boomer things in general.

Receive Their Papers.

Charles England, Notary Public, received certificates of naturalization for the following named gentlemen, this week, who now enjoy the rights and privileges of natural born British Subjects:

Hans Hanson.
F. W. Olson.
J. B. Carlson.
M. J. Doyle.
D. Christie.
Albert Johnson.
O. P. Foughty.
Andy Swanly.
Alfred L. Hanson.
Ole Meland.
Dr. H. Belles.

The farmers who have had a dry year this season need not fear—there are worse conditions in other parts of the country. Mrs. Fred F. Rowatt, writing from Rugby, N. D. to her husband here, states that there farmers have been rejoicing over their heavy crop, and now that harvest time is at hand, they are unable to gather it, owing to continual downpours of rain.

To Construct Large Lake.

The Southern Alberta Land Co., which has large land holdings south of Carlstadt is planning to construct a large artificial lake 12 miles from town. The lake will be about two and one half miles wide and five miles long, and will be part of the company's extensive irrigation plan for their property.

They last week closed a deal with seven homesteaders in 13-10 acres of the 14th meridian for rights to their half-sections. The sellers received a good round sum for their land and in addition will get their homestead rights returned and be allowed to move off all their fixtures, tools, etc.

The company will use this land and several sections of their property adjoining as a huge reservoir of irrigation is expected to be completed by 1914 according to the officials of the company.

R. J. Dickson, of the Manitoba Free Press, published at Winnipeg, was in Carlstadt Tuesday. He was securing data and necessary information to give the Busy Burg a write-up in the Free Press.

A. Cole is wearing a broad smile as well as has reason to do so.

CARLSTADT TO BE HONORED

Official announcement is made that a "mixed-farming special" for the purpose of educating the farmers of Alberta as to the benefits of diversified agriculture, will tour the province this fall and will stop at Carlstadt for several hours on the afternoon of October 30th.

The equipment for the train will be furnished by the Canadian Pacific and will consist of nine cars, one baggage car containing exhibits of grains, grasses, seeds and diary products; another baggage car with a poultry display; two cars of purebred livestock; two passenger cars to be used as lecture rooms, a sleep car, a dinar and a box car.

In addition to the farm, dairy and poultry experts employed by the provincial department of agriculture, noted lecturers will be engaged to accompany the train. The speakers already agreed upon include Pro. W. J. Elliot of the Canadian Pacific railway natural resources department; Superintendent H. A. Craig, of the provincial demonstration farms; C. E. Lewis, superintendent of fairs and institutes; Livestock Commissioner W. F. Stevens; Provincial Weed Inspector A. McKeown; Provincial Dairy Commissioner C. P. Marker, and Provincial Poultry Commissioner A. W. Foley.

Other business callers in the busy burg during the past week have been the following: J. F. Macdonald, Montreal; J. McLean, Toronto; F. Tanguay, Neepawa; B. C. L. Swart, Opabika; F. L. Davis, Winnipeg.

Information for Our Eastern Readers

The News will gladly answer all letters and questions regarding Carlstadt and vicinity. Communications will be strictly confidential.

er A. W. Foley.

The Hon. Duncan Marshall, minister of agriculture, is now in the east and while there he will enlist the services of two or three noted farm specialists who will travel with the train.

ROAD TO NORTH SEA

COCHRANE BELIEVES IN HUDSON BAY ROUTE

Visitors from North and Europe With Every Faint in Possession of the Undertaking, and Will Put Energy into the Work.

Ottawa — I have returned from the Yukon, having traversed the Hudson Bay route. If you will convert the route to the Hudson Bay, I will return with every faint in favor of the work. I will do all I can for the work.

Then spoke Hon. Frank Cochrane, a member of the Conservative party, who has been a leader in the campaign to open up the route of the Selkirk and home by the Bay St. Rials.

Nothing gives Mr. Lloyd-George greater pleasure than to see the enthusiasm of these men, and other experienced men as regards the formation of a road.

I see, said Mr. Cochrane, that the route has been selected as the formula. This is not correct; I have not come to say that the route is the best, but I have been on the pros and cons of the route and weighing the advantages and disadvantages of the route, and I believe it to be absolutely right in my decision.

I expect the answer of the engineers within a day or so, and then there will be a final announcement.

It is evident that the Cochrane found Priti Churchill by far the best natural route. It will take several months to make Nelson an up-to-date terminal.

On the other hand, Nelson would be a natural port, although the route is very much shorter. This is the one thing the engineers are estimating, as to whether the saving by the route of the Selkirk and the Bay is worth the extra harbour cost or not.

We intend to make this a good road, and the cost of the road will be borne with emphasis.

LOYD-GEORGE MAY VISIT U.S.

Says He Will Take First Opportunity of Visiting the States.

London—Replying to a delegation of American Welshmen who invited him to attend the International Welsh Festival, George said he had received many invitations, but of late years he had been rather busy—so busy that he had no time to accept any more. He said he would accept an invitation for the next festival, but that he could not guarantee him a more convenient day could be fixed, he was certain, by the time of the festival.

Then spoke Hon. Frank Cochrane, a member of the Conservative party, who has been a leader in the campaign to open up the route of the Selkirk and home by the Bay St. Rials.

GREAT RAILWAY CHAIN

HUGE RAILWAY PROJECT IN CHINA IS ADVOCATED.

Dr. Sun Yat Sen Has a Progressive Plan to Connect the Country to Foreigners, and Country to be Opened to Foreign Enterprise.

Peking.—The project for a great railway chain in China, which Dr. Sun Yat Sen's programme for the modernization of the country has made possible, is to be given the go-ahead by the Chinese Government.

The Chinese Government has accepted the plan, and the Chinese Government has accepted the plan.

76,000 DEATHS IN CHINA STORM

Typical Major Cities Hit.

Shanghai.—The number of deaths in the typhoon which swept Shanghai, Province, August 10, was 76,000, according to messages received by the Foreign Office.

The relief committee are doing their best to relieve the situation, but the magnitude of the disaster has been such as would be called "catastrophic."

The government lacks funds. Several foreign missionaries are reporting.

The catastrophe's suddenness was appalling.

The typhoon began early in the morning and the forenoon with hurricane violence.

With rivers already over-taxed, the flood water rushed to their reservoirs to an unprecedented height.

The Government has not sanctioned the last few days for the preparation of the new loans to China, but the Foreign Office has not yet received any information.

This is considered a clever political move, for what the Foreign Office has done is to postpone the new loans to China until the Foreign Office has received the information.

OF SPECIAL INTEREST
TO FARMERSDISTRICT NEWS REPORTED
BY OUR CORRESPONDENTS

Next month many farmers from this and adjacent districts, will visit the Dry Farming Congress in Lethbridge. Here is something that may be of interest to the farmers, who intend visiting the convention, and the News hopes their name is legion in Carlstadt.

The International Dry-Farming Congress is a body composed of representative delegates from some 60 nations and from 33 states, and one-half dozen provinces, territories and possessions of the great countries of the world. It holds annual sessions, publishes vast quantities of literature pertaining to dry-farming methods, and sends out lectures, expert agriculturists and practical farmers to address institutional sessions and farmer's meeting generally in its efforts to increase the productive acreage of the world. In connection with its Congress session usually held for five days, it also conducts a similar Congress for farm women, international of scope, philanthropic of purpose, and bringing the farm home to the minds of the uplift of the farmer's family, of the improvement of hygiene and sanitary condition of the broader life of happiness and health, and of the future generations along the lines of success and prosperity. It also conducts a large exposition—this year for ten days, from October 17-26, inclusive—at which all grains and grasses grown under dry-farming conditions are featured, high power farm machinery and labor-saving devices are demonstrated, model farm houses and barns are shown, and able lecturers strive to educate the farmer and the farmer's wife in the conservation of life, of energy, of wealth and of nature's gifts.

CONCERT AT RAINY VALLEY

The Rainy Valley School concert held last Friday evening was a grand success. Attendance was good although the night was dark.

The school was nicely decorated, the word "Welcome" being written in large letters with the school colors red and white on south wall, and festoons over the stage. A special platform was erected on which the children went through fancy drill and other exercises.

The program was as follows:

Song—"The Maple Leaf," The Pupils.

Recitation—"Words of Welcome" Howard McDonald.

Recitation—"When Mother is away," Adelaida Mason.

Song and Drill—(Original) "The Rainy Valley School room." The Pupils.

Recitation—"A Boy's Opinion," Phillip Olsen.

Recitation—"I'm Mama's Darling," Stella Harrison.

Dialogue—"Floral Offerings," Mary Guterson, Edna Olson, Edna Steed and Adelaida Mason.

Song—"Up in the Sky," The Pupils.

Recitation—"You Naughty Goose," Glen Dahl.

Dialogue—"A slight misunderstanding," Miss Wood and Don Bremer.

Recitation—"The Circus Boy," Mrs. C. R. McDonald.

Song—"Kind Words," C. O. Olson.

Recitation—"Woman's Rights," Mrs. Steed.

Dr. Mason was chairman, and did the honor in a very acceptable and pleasing way. An abundance of refreshments was supplied by the ladies of the district. A vote of thanks was moved and unanimously passed to all those who had so kindly assisted in decorating the school, supplying refreshments etc. Mrs. Mason acted as accompanist. The proceeds exceeded all expectations. About midnight all joined in singing the National Anthem.

It is proposed having another concert about Thanksgiving Day.

WEEDLESS WARRIORS

The home of Harry C. Klinick was the scene of pleasant event Saturday night, when upwards of thirty of his friends gathered and spent the evening in merriment, and part of the next day in games and music. Mr. Klinick was joined in his efforts of entertainment, by Mr. Jones always a successful host. It was called a bachelor attempt and very creditable that, Mr. W. H. Turner also assisted the boys. Those who were present were: Wm. Klinick, Raymond, Clifton Jones, the Misses Laura and Jennie Leitch, Miss Gifford, Guy Sparks and Mrs. Sparks, Miss Conrad, Miss Ferrol, Scott Chappier, Miss Webdale, Wm. Webdale, Miss Craig, Joe Craig, P. Salverson, Mr. Turner and family, Blanch Garrison, Mr. Contopouros.

and W. D. Mackay (Carlstadt). The affair did not break up until after the sun peeped up over the east, and every one left after voting the affair a grand success.

The services at the Sunday school were of a highly interesting nature last Sunday, and were largely attended. Mr. Websdale presided and Miss Edith Websdale fulfilled the duties of accompanist. The following programme was successfully carried out:

Opening Hymn—511 School. Prayer—Mrs. Engbl. Hymn—School. Reading lesson—A. E. Websdale. Recitation—There is beauty in the forest, This Liddle. Song with Guitar—Miss Langstrom.

Recitation—Frank O'Connor.

Solo—Face to Face, Miss Ferrol.

Recitation—Anna Liddell.

Motion Song—School.

Hyacin—School.

Recit—the friendly hand, Naomi Websdale.

Solo—Miss Langstrom.

Recitation—Willie Websdale,

Recit—Lon maxie,

Prayer—W. J. Liddle.

Dr. McEwen Wins.

"If a hen and a half lays an egg and a half in a day and a half, how many eggs will ten hens lay in ten days?"

For the past two weeks, since we printed the above problem and offered a three year subscription free for the first correct solution, a large number of our readers have been scratching their heads and figuring. We now make official announcement of the winner: Dr. S. P. McEwen, whose solution 60 eggs, was the first to reach us. Among the numbers of answers that we received from young and old, the range varied from 10 eggs to 110 eggs, but the answers of Dr. McEwen and F. J. Conn were the only correct ones, and as the doctor's was the first one to come in, he is the winner of the three year subscription.

Calling 1 1/2 hens the same as 3 hens, the following is the solution:

3 hens in 2 days 6 1/2 lay eggs. Then in 1 day 3 1/2 hens lay 1 1/2 eggs in 1 day. Then in ten days 3 1/2 hens would lay 10 eggs and 20 1/2 hens would lay 30 1/2 divided by 3 = 10.

Later we expect to conduct another contest similar to this.
